

LOS ANGELES

HOSPITALITY

TRAINING ACADEMY

HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY BOOM IN LOS ANGELES COUNTY

LEISURE AND HOSPITALITY ARE VITAL TO THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY ECONOMY

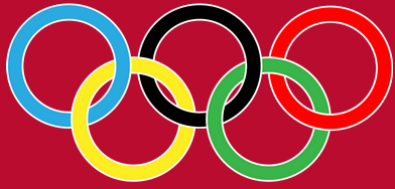

Almost 50 million visitors come to Los Angeles annually, making hospitality one of the leading sectors for job growth. Food service is one of the fastest growing subsectors and an estimated 18,880 new jobs will be added in the next 2 years.

THE LOS ANGELES INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (LAX) IS EXPANDING

LAX is undergoing a $14 billion dollar capital improvement project that will add 2,000 new concession/food service jobs to the airport.

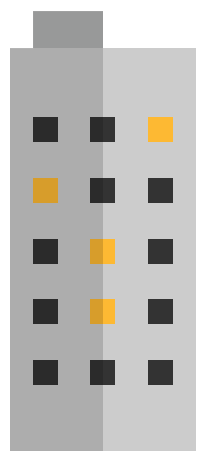

LOS ANGELES COUNTY HAS THREE MAJOR EVENTS ON THE HORIZON

Los Angeles is preparing to host the 2021 Super Bowl at the new Rams Stadium in Inglewood, the 2026 World Cup and the 2028 Summer Olympic Games.

THERE IS AN UNPRECEDENTED AMOUNT OF HOTELS IN DEVELOPMENT

There are approximately 100 new hotels in the development pipeline that will fill the demand for hotel rooms for Los Angeles' major events.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS NEED JOB OPPORTUNITIES

In partnership with the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) Division of Adult & Career Education (DACE), HTA is running a second cohort of ESL for Hospitality Careers at Evans Community Adult School.

INTEGRATED BASIC EDUCATION AND SKILLS TRAINING (I-BEST) AND INTEGRATED EDUCATION TRAINING (IET)

HTA is committed to giving English language learners not just language skills, but also the technical skills needed, to obtain and retain employment on a career pathway in the hospitality industry.

