

SAVE the DATE

October 23, 2020

On September 29, 2020, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors directed the Office of Violence Prevention to report back with an implementation plan which would include the creation of a coordinated, community-based Crisis Response and Violence Intervention Program (CRVIP) that is responsive to the needs and assets of individuals and communities impacted by trauma.

<http://file.lacounty.gov/SDSInter/bos/supdocs/149221.pdf>

The Office of Violence Prevention (OVP) wants your input to inform the development of this community based program. We will be hosting two listening sessions on Friday, October 23, 2020.

Session 1: October 23, 2020

9 AM – 12 PM

Session 2: October 23, 2020

1 PM – 4 PM

Please save the date. More information coming soon via email and the OVP website.

<http://ph.lacounty.gov/ovp/>

